JE Don't yet know whether venue will be the library or the chamber, may like to do a PowerPoint presentation (easier in library)

JB2 regarding AV set-up - Nathan needs to know if the venue is the library in advance

JE concludes that having the half-chamber as the venue is the preference

Format - lecture following a Q&A

Staying and going out to dinner, possibly with family

HOEMs - DC, two stewards currently

JP2 put up Will Gompertz up online late so will need to push turnout up, possibly by sharing on facebook timelines

Press - no interest so far

b) Recreational Drugs Debate

KR 9 speakers, some from further afield

Brownies in the bar afterwards

AM arrives 8.21am

DC stewards ready, question about the Events Master showing the debates dinner

KR will be held upstairs, due to number of speakers

CG 3 GLAs

Press - no interest so far

JH to look at who gets to interview and that process - being voted on at Standing Committee tomorrow

JP2 online publicity going up after the meeking

MK SD card reader has arrived, so screens in the union building should be working from Thursday, displaying information.

c) ArcSoc Cabaret

JB1, everything is sorted

Building will be closed from 5pm approximately

Ticketed guests only

d) Evan Davis

Next meeting

e) Ceilidh

Next meeting

f) Democratic Primary (JH)

Hosted for all Democrats living in the East of England

Already interest for a press release

No political affiliation, but hosting by request

Campaigns in the bar, using the SuperBowl decorations

Expecting 50-200 turnout

DC and JE to meet to talk about stewarding

4) DME Editor

JH, Alison is not always resident in Cambridge so cannot be as involved in role as Digital Media Editor

Tom has asked for extra help with the role- especially because of end of term workload

Online Publicity has been going well – follow the twitter and Instagram account

5) AOB

JH date for Mark Hamill– 27th Feb, late afternoon

Will be the Union for both lunch and dinner

Finalising details today and tomorrow

Meeting closed at 8:33am
